

THE REGULATIONS FOR BIDDINGS

(Brazilian Law For Biddings)

- BRAZILIAN CONSTITUTION

CHAPTER VII

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION SECTION I - GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 37. - The direct or indirect public administration of any of the powers of the Union, the states, the Federal District and the municipalities, as well as their foundations, shall obey the principles of lawfulness, impartiality, morality, advertising and also the following

- LAW 8.666/93

Article 123. - Agencies abroad shall have their administrative, contracting and bidding activities conform to the local laws and regulations and the basic principles of this Law, pursuant to specific regulation.

CHAPTER I. - GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION I - PRINCIPLES

Article 1. - This Law establishes the general rules on bidding and administrative agreements for works, services (including advertising), purchases, disposals and leases within the sphere of authority of the federal government, states, the Federal District and municipalities.

Sole Paragraph - In addition to the direct administrative bodies, all special funds, autonomous government, entities, public foundations, state-owned companies, mixed-capital companies and other entities directly or indirectly controlled by the federal government, states, the Federal District and municipalities are subject to the ruling of this Law.

Article 2. - The works, services, including advertising, purchases, sales, disposals, concessions, permissions and leases involving the Public Administration and third parties must be preceded by bidding, with the exception of the events provided for herein.

Sole Paragraph - For the purposes of this Law an agreement shall mean any and all contracts between the Public Administration and private entities in which there is a binding arrangement stipulating reciprocal obligations, regardless of the name given thereto.

Article 3. - The bidding is designed to guarantee the observance of the constitutional principle of equality and to select the bid that is most advantageous for the Administration, and shall be processed and judged strictly in accordance with the basic principles of legality, impartiality, morality, equality, advertising, administrative overview, abidance by the announcement to bid, objective judgment, and other related elements.

- AIR FORCE INTERNAL REGULATIONS

Aeronautical Command Manual 172-3

- LOCAL REGULATIONS

Local Legislation