

BIOGRAPHY

BRAZILIAN AIR FORCE

COLONEL WILSON PAULO CORRÊA MARQUES

Colonel Jano Ferreira dos Santos is the Assistant Defense and Air Attaché and Commanding Officer of the Brazilian Aeronautical Commission, (BACW), one of the most important, complex and busiest Commissions of the Brazilian Air Force abroad. The BACW is an advanced logistics outpost and major acquisition center for aviation material of the Brazilian Air Force Command in Washington, DC. Col Jano is responsible to the Director of the Air Force Logistics Center in São Paulo, Brazil, for all commercial purchases of aeronautical material worldwide. Col Jano's primary responsibility is the readiness of the Force.

Col Jano also oversees a broad range of varied activities, such as bidding, contracting, general agreements, leases, personnel administration, and also providing operational support, infrastructure, and general services to all of the Air Force Bases, Material Depots, Medical Centers, Aerospace Centers, and Research Laboratories in Brazil. He also watches over and is the administrative support element for the Foreign Military Sales (FMS) purchases and consequent operational and administrative process.
